VIRGINIA GIVES BIG MAJORITY FOR TRINKLE

Estimated At 60,000—Entire State Ticket Overwhelmingly Elected.

G. O. P. SWAMPED

Democratic Triumph Extends Throughout the Entire Country—A Democratic Year.

The latest obtainable results of yesterday's election in the Old Dominion indicate the most overwhelming victory for the entire ticket that has been gained in the last fifty years. The independent strength for the Republican ticket, for which so much was claimed, failed utterly to materialize, and the minority vote was consistently Republican. The entire ticket is given majorities estimated at not less than 60,000 and the most complete answer to the G. O. P. campaign is the fact that it seems probable that Trinkle has defeated Anderson even in the Ninth Congressional District, which has hitherto consistently returned in large Republican majorities.

One of the most significant results of the entire campaign is the fact that in Richmond the Republican count failed to go over 100 in any one precinct, except in a very few cases. Even in Colonel Anderson's own precinct his strength was insignificant, he losing the precinct to Trinkle by a vote of 550 to 94.

In view of the hurricane campaign of the Republicans in Richmond, with its lavish expenditure of campaign funds, it is conceded that the campaign just closed was the most spectacular fiasco in the political history of Virginia.

Counties and cities, one after another, reported largely increased Democratic majorities, the party vote exceeding that cast for Governor Cox for the presidency, while the vote for Colonel Anderson fell for the most part behind that cast for President Harding in the national election of 1920.

In the Fifth Congressional District, J. Murray Hooker, of Patrick, was elected to Congress as a part of the Democratic landslide, to fill the vacancy left by the death of the late Rorer A. James.

In the Virginia house of delegates the Democrats have more than held their own, with an actual gain of two members of the House in Rockingham County and one in Giles and Bland, with the possible loss of two in Washington County.

In the Ninth District, incomplete returns indicate that the Republican majority will be but a fraction of its usual strength, and Trinkle may have carried the distrct. Trinkle has carried Giles, Pulaski and Russell counties by large majorities, and Smythe and probably Wythe by smaller majorities. The usual heavy Republican leads in Tazewell, Lee, Scott and Wise have been considerably reduced.

The returns from all over the country indicate that the Democratic Party is coming into its own again. In New York City Mayor Hylan was re-elected by 400,000 majority. Mrs. Annie Matthews was elected to the office of registrar of the Borough of Manhattan, the first woman ever to be elected to so important an office in New York city or state. In New York State five important cities have elected Democratic mayors over tehir Republican opponents. Returns from the legislative elections in New York State indicate that the Republicans will lose twenty seats in the lower house.

In Maryland the Democratic ticket appears to have scored a decisive victory. The Democratic State Comptroller was elected by a large majority, probably as great as 18,000. The legislature is Democratic. In Baltimore the Republican city ticket was defeated. Baltimore County lined up on the Democratic side, and throughout the State consistent Democratic gains were shown, if not actual victories in every case.

The result throughout the country indicates Democratic gains, or certainly large reductions of former Republican majorities.

WASHINGTON DAY BY DAY

(From Our Special Correspondent)

Washington, Nov. 9.—There is every likelihood that former President Wilson will be able to attend the ceremonies at Arlington on Armistice Day when the body of the unknown American dead will be interred in its final resting place. Reports received by the Gazette correspondent today indicate that Mr. Wilson has entirely recovered from his recent attack of indigestion which kept him indoors for a few days and that his physical condition will permit, of his being present at Arlington as one of the chief guests of the nation on this memorable occasion. The former occupant of the White House has resumed his daily auto trips in the suburbs of the National Capital and has even visited one or more of the local playhouses during the past week. He is preparing to give the women of the country a warm reception when they call upon him after the ceremonies at Arlington to express their gratitude for his great work in the cause of humanity which he accomplished.

The action of the Senate in aggreeing to take a vote on the anti-beer bill on November 18 insures its passage through that body, as there is not the least doubt that its friends have sufficient strength to carry their point. The early date at which a vote is to be taken on this legislation will be a blow to those who had been hoping that they would be able to put by large stocks of malt liquors in their cellars for use the coming wintes. Several brewers had already received permits to sell and manufacture the real stuff and retail druggists were preparing to handle it in the trade under prescriptions issued by physicians. But with only a few days remaining until the regulations authorizing its use will be declared null and void, the spirits of the "wets" have become somewhat dismayed. They feel now that all that is left for them is the old "home brew."

China's default on both principal and interest of her five million dollar loan advanced by a Chicago bank has precipitated the question of the acceptance by China of the international consortium plan of advancing loans which she has hitherto disapproved. It has called attention to the lack of central governmental control in China and the necessity that will face the approaching arms conference of dealing with the entire Chinese situation in a courageous way.

It is admitted that a note has been sent to China in which it was made plain that the default seriously impaired the credit of the Chinese government and that it made difficult for the friends of China to be active in her behalf at the conference.

American oil concerns have extended their development operations into many parts of the world, seeking new sources of oil, according to Secretary of Commerce Hooves. Americans are prospecting in South America, in Columbia and in northern Canada, to exploit new petroleum fields. Latest reports fail to show that exploits in South America on both sides of the Andes mountains have brought forth any important new oil fields. In Colombia, however, American exploration has revealed important petroleum resources, but the difficulty which mainly confronts the prospectors is inadequate transportation.

Premier Aristide Briand, of France who is now in Washington to attend the arms conference, has been given a special Secret Service escort to be near him at all times during his stay in the United States. Wherever the Premier ventures he will be carefully guarded by government operatives. The men selected for this duty are the best in the government service. Special precautions taken for the safety of the French Premier are in line with those adopted upon the arrival of the delegations of other leading powers. The Secret Service men are to be aided by operatives from the army intelligence unit and special agents of the Department of Justice in looking out for the distinguished visitors now at the National Capital.

President Harding dubbed himself a "greenhorn President" yesterday in talking to the Washington correspondents. He was referring to the order he has just issued providing that in the future all public documents and state papers should bear the inscription as having been "done in the City of Washington."

"A greenhorn President," he said, "signed one recently as having been done in the District of Columbia.'

MRS. WATTLES IS ELECTED TO SCHOOL BOARD

City Council Fails To Elect First Ward Member Or Fire Chief.

REED NEW MEMBER

Clerk of Gas and City Engineer Given Salary Increases—Improvements To Washington Street.

The joint session of common council and the board of aldermen again adjourned last night without electing a chief of the fire department or a member of the city school board from the first ward. Mrs. C. William Wattles, wife of Councilman Wattles, was elected a member of the school board from the second ward, without opposition, Dr. Samuel H. Lunt, the incumbent, having asked that his name be withdrawn from consideration. Robert Colvin was re-elected from the third ward, without opposition, and T. Calvert Perry re-elected from the fourth ward, also without opposition.

The joint session was full of thrills for the spectator and was marked from beginning to end with discussions. After an invitation had been extended by common council to the board of aldermen to meet in joint session, and while waiting for the aldermen to appear, Mr. Downham moved that council go into the election of a successor to Councilman Jerome Kaufmann, resigned. This met with much opposition, but Mr. Downham's motion finally prevailed, and the names of John Reed and John Green were placed in nomination. Mr. Reed received 13 votes to his opponent's 1, and was declared elected. An attempt was made to swear him in immediately, but he was not present, and Mr. Reed did not take his seat until after the joint session.

Councilman Baggett, immediately after the joint session convened, moved that election of a chief of the fire department be deferred pending certain investigations as to certain rumors regarding the fire department that had reached members of council. President Marbury ruled that Mr. Baggett's motion was out of order, and called for nominations for member of the city school board from the first ward. Charles E. Tenneson, the incumbent, was nominated by Mr. Ticer, and Mr. Desmond nominated Cecil Hufty. Three ballots were taken, the vote on the first ballot standing Tenneson, 11, Hufty, 9; and on the second and third ballots, Tenneson 11, Hufty 10. Later, after board members from the other three wards had been elected, another ballot on the first ward was taken, resulting Tenneson 12, Hufty, 10. As 13 votes are required for an election, President Marbury ruled that there was no election, and the matter was deferred until a later joint session.

On the final ballot the vote stood as follows: For Tenneson—McCaffrey, Matter, Ruben, Ticer, Downham, Wattles, Drury, Baggett, Fletcher, Burke, Batcheler and Harrison—12. For Hufty—Desmond, Sullivan, Ballenger, Lawler, Devers, Marbury, Robinson, Wilkins, Anderson and Summers—10.

Mr. Baggett again pressed his motion to defer the election of a fire chief, and was again overruled by the president, he stating that the board of aldermen had been invited to a joint session for election purposes, and that the election would be held. A motion to dissolve the joint session was lost, and nominations called for. The names of Edward J. McDermott, the incumbent, Kenneth W. Ogden, former chief, and John H. Trimyer were then placed in nomination, with 13 votes required for election. Two ballots were taken, both resulting McDermott 12, Ogden 8, Trimyer 2. Alderman Summers then moved that the joint session be dissolved, which motion was lost. President Marbury then announced that the name of Mr. Trimyer, the candidate receiving the lowest number of votes, would be dropped, whereupon Alderman Summers nominated "Sam Jones," stating that there were a number of Sam Jones's in Alexandria, any one of whom would make a good fire chief. One ballot was taken, resulting, McDermott 12, Ogden 9, Sam Jones 1. Mr. Trimyer was again placed in nomination, and the vote on the next ballot stood McDermott 12, Ogden 9, Trimyer 1. A motion to dissolve the joint session was then carried by a vote of 12 to 10, and the session adjourned without electing a successor to Mr. McDermott, who will continue to hold office under his original appointment until either re-elected or succeeded.

On the final ballot the vote stood as follows: For McDermott—McCaffrey, Ticer, Wattles, Desmond, Ballenger, Lawler, Devers, Burke, Marbury, Robinson, Harrison and Anderson—12. For Ogden—Matter, Ruben, Downham, Drury, Sullivan, Baggett, Batcheler, Fletcher and Wilkins—9. For Trimyer—Summers—1.

Common council was then called to order, and John M. Reed sworn in as a member to succeed Mr. Kaufmann. President Harry Burke announced the appointment of Councilman W. J. McCaffrey as chairman of the committee on public property

SILENT TRIBUTE IS PAID TO THE UNKNOWN HERO

Despite Rain Large Crowd On River Front As Ship Passes.

BELLS ARE TOLLED

Taps Was Sounded As Cruiser Olympia Passed Up River This Afternoon.

Silent tribute to the memory of the unknown warrior was paid by a large number of citizens this afternoon as the cruiser Olympia glided up the Potomac bearing the body of the unknown hero. Despite the rain a good sized crowd was attracted to the river front and stood in silence as the fast cruiser passed up the historic Potomac past Alexandria. Rain failed to keep many back from the river front. There were business and professional men and women and in fact men of all classes were in the crowd and in addition many school children. Many stood with bared heads as the cruiser sped towards its goal.

As the cruiser passed the plant of the Alexandria Naval Torpedo Station taps were sounded on a bugle by Alvin Frielander, who stood on that company's wharf surrounded by a marine guard of honor of the plant who stood at attention.

Early in the afternoon the bells began to toll and long before the time for the cruiser to pass there was a good sized throng assembled on the river front to do homage to the unknown.

Captain George H. Evans, business manager of the Chamber of Commerce, was notified by telephone by the commanding officer at Quantico that the cruiser had passed that point.

He in turn notified those in charge of the arrangements for the ringing of the bells and immediately they begagn to toll. The bells joining in this were those at the three fire engine house, the city hall bell and the bell of historic Christ Episcopal Church where George Washington was a worshipper. Many merchants closed their places of business during the passing of the cruiser.

Trailing behind the Olympia were a number of smaller naval craft while aloft airplanes circled against the sky.

As the Olympia steamed past Fort Washington twenty-one guns boomed forth a salute to the honored dead.

On arriving in Washington the body was placed in a hearse and borne to the Capitol and placed in the Rotunda where it will lie in state till Friday morning, when anyone desiring may pass the casket and pay a silent tribute. The body will be buried in Arlington with great pomp and ceremony on Friday, Armistice Day.

Bible Thought for Today

STATE NEWS

Staunton,—Dangerfield Johnson, colored, said to be 104 years of age, died this morning of rabies in the county jail, that being the only place where he could be held in confinement. Johnson was bitten several weeks ago by a mad dog and was taken immediately to Charlottesville, where he was given the Pasteur treatment. Pronounced out of any danger of hydrophobia, Johnson was sent home Friday, and was stricken suddenly with rabies late Sunday night, becoming so violent that it required four men to hold him.

Newport News,—Experiments are being conducted at the Cape Henry lighthouse with a view of replacing the oil lamps with concentrated filament electric lights. It is hoped to double the power of the light by electrifying it and to attain three complete flashes a minute.

Lynchburg—The local Ministerial Union has named a committee to begin work on plans for an auditorium to be provided here for the Billy Sunday campaign to be put on in Lynchburg a year hence. The ministers are hoping to secure a permannt auditorium instead of a temporary tabernacle.

Leesville—Believed by parish officials to be victms of an axe murder, the body of Dan Davis, of Leesville, and Otto Wright, of Florine were found Sunday in a desolate spot near the Leesville cemetery. They had been beaten to death apparently with a pickaxe. Newport News—The airship, Roma, did not leave her moorings at Langley Field this morning, although she was reported ready for a preliminary test flight. MEETING FOR WOMEN

Miss Elizabeth Bain of the American Social Hygiene Association will address a meeting for women only at the Chamber of Commerce auditorium this Thursday evening at eight o'clock. Every woman is urged to attend this meeting which is being held under the auspices of the Ladies' Auxiliary of the Y. M. C. A. Miss Bain, is now lecturing in Virginia under the direction of the State Board of Health.

Miss Bain's personality combined with her thorough knowledge of the subject makes her one of the most effectiye of social hygiene lecturers. Previous to 1918 she was one the faculty of Washington High School, Portland, Oregon, and her many years of constant and close contact with the problems of adolescence gave her an invaluable insight regarding them.

The U. S. Government took cognizance of Miss Bain's training and ability during the war and her work in London and Paris, 1918-19, was characterized by ranking army officers as "of the greatest value in inspiring and sustaining the morale of the A. E. F." On her return to the United States she welcomed the opportunity for continuing her activities as a member of the staff of the American Social Hygiene Association in which capacity she has lectured to audiences of parents, teachers, boys and girls, men's and women's clubs and colleges, throughout the country.

A belief in "the inherent goodness of young people," is one of Miss Bain's leading characteristics. "Our girls and boys are sincere, fairminded and anxious to make the best of themselves," she says. "When they fail it is often because of a lack of the right kind of knowledge. Parents are the primary sources for sex information and when they neglect this duty they are responsible to the young and to the community for the resulting evils."

MARINES TO BE DETAILED FOR GUARDING MAIL

Postoffice Department Will Use 1,000 Sea Soldiers To Check Mail Robberies.

TO RECRUIT FORCE

Arms and Ammunition Will Also Be Issued To Postoffice Clerks—Stern Measures To Be Adopted.

Washington, Nov. 9.—The Government today detailed 1,000 Marines to the Postoffice Department to guard the mails, ordered to shoot to kill if necessary.

This was the unprecedented action which followed immediately on yesterday's remarkable hold up of an Illinois Central passenger train at Paxton, Ill., the latest of the series of daring exploits in banditry against the United States mails.

Along with the order to the marines went another order issuing an additional supply of arms and ammunition to mail clerks, likewise accompanied by instructions that they were to be used to kill when emergency required. At the same time plans were announced for making the armed guard a permanent institution if the need for it appears to continue.

The announcement was made quietly in a brief statement given to the press by the Postoffice Department. It stated "there is no length to which the department will not go to prevent these mail robberies," and that "the mails are inviolate and must and shall be protected." It disclosed that conferences and action followed quickly all along the line when news of the latest Western hold-up was received.

It said the recent mail robbery in New York should have been prevented, and announced the suspension of three heads of the New York Postoffice pending a hearing. No more interesting pronunciamiento has come out of the Postoffice Department in many years.

The following is the department's statement:

"We are reissuing the instructions that the armed postal employes shoot to kill and are sending out another quantity of arms and ammunition. We have arranged today with the Secretary of the Navy for the detail of 1,000 marines to the Postoffice Department. These men will be detailed to ride with the mail trucks and the mail coaches in which the valuable mail is conveyed. and stationed at those points in postoffices and stations where special protection is essential. Additional marines will be recruited from the department itself to take the place ultimately of these soldiers on armed guard as a permanent branch of the service. The thousand marines put into this now are selected men and are ordered to live up to the traditions of the corps in the protection of the mail.

NOVEMBER THE ELEVENTH

Friday, November the Eleventh in the year of our Lord, nineteen hundred twenty-one, marks a day unique in the calendar of nations. For the first time in history honors will be paid to a humble soldier in the ranks, such as have rarely or never been paid to royalty itself. The ruler of the greatest country in the world today; the victorious field-marshal of the mightiest army ever gathered under one command; the chief justice of the highest court in Christendom; the admiral of the most formidable fleet that ever sailed the main; ambassadors, cabinet officers, senators, hundreds of the most distinguished men and women of three continents, with thousands upon thousands of a citizenry without superior;—these will muster into one mighty assemblage, dominated by one sole purpose, swayed by one sole impulse, to do honor and pay common tribute to an unknown soldier, "dead on the field of honor."

Without rank, without any of the appellations of dignity that confer distinction, even without name, this hero-dead of ours will receive those more than honors that are usually paid but to the high and mighty of the earth.

In how many households of this broad land will tears be shed and heads be bowed in grief, at the tender recollection of some beloved countenance; some cherished form; some dear, remembered voice now silent forever.—In how many families will the thought arise, to thrill—perchance to assuage—that this dead boy may be their very own.

While he, to whom this homage is paid, will lie oblivious to it all, draped in the flag of his country, to preserve which he died in alien lands. His commander-in-chief will pronounce his eulogy; his comrades will sound taps; the bugles will softly breathe a dirge; and his grateful countrymen will pronounce a last benediction.

Thus will Armistice Day be observed in a manner strangely symbolic. An auspicious opening for the nations of the earth who are assembled to consider how the enginery of war may be diminished and its cause abated. That their labors will be crowned with success, it were rash to prophesy. But equally rash were it to deny them a consummation for the world's good.

The age of democracy for mankind has arrived. The ceremonies on the eleventh are unimpeachable evidence. Now, first in the chronicles of time, have the peoples met to consider of war and peace. And, under divine guidance, there can be but one issue. The people who bear the burdens, who give up their lives, who share among them all the horrors of war, have spoken already to their ambassadors at the conference. War must cease and peace prevail. This is the solemn mandate and it must be heeded and obeyed.

LITTLE STORIES OF THE STREET
By The Man About Town

The Gazette was the first daily paper printed in the United States. The first publication printed in the English language is preserved in the archives of the British Museum. It was printed by the British government and bears the date of July 26, 1588. Its reason for existence, as stated; "that this publication is the surest means of making the truth known to the people, and of contending against the sin of lying and exaggeratons of calumny;" applies with equal force to modern journalism. The newspapers of America have done their full share in making America great. Freedom of the press has encouraged freedom of thought and freedom of action. The Gazette toed the scratch with the beginners in moulding American ideals and it is still in the running. If you are not a subscriber you should be. It is your paper and should have your support.

Some people are extremely sensitive. At a recent church service the minister prayed earnestly and long for a person in deep affliction. A young man who had just been married got up and walked out. He refused to be interviewed but apparently he didn't care to have public sympathy obtruded upon him in that manner.

One of the most attractively dressed show windows in town is given over to boosting the Annual Roll Call of the Red Cross which begins Friday and lasts two weeks. A shield surmounted with electric lights bearing the insigna of the blazing cross, is draped with flags, posters conspicuously displayed advise readers of the activities of the organization in aiding disabled veterans and their families. Where is it? On the corner of King and Pitt in the store of one of Alexandria's most progressive merchants, Swan Brothers.

The Man About Town spent a busy morning watching the voters turn out to express their opinions via the ballot on election day. It is an interesting sight, this watching the average citizen exercise the rights of his citizenship. Some of them approach the polls with the firm and confident step of the vanquishing hero; others linger long as if half undecided regarding the proper course to pursue, and still others sneak to the polls as if ashamed of the inalienable right of free government. A minority never exercise the rights they possess, and to that indifferent minority may be attributed much of the mismanagement attributd to those in power.

Those who were present at the Naval Torpedo Station this afternoon during the services attendant upon the passing of the "Olympia" bearing the body of the Unknown Dead probably noticed the peculiar looking flag which flew over the buildings in company with the Stars and Stripes. It was not a foreign ensign as some people imagined but the insignia of the Naval Ordnance Department, designed and adopted by the constituted authorities during the late war with Germany. Commander McKittrick told us so, otherwise we would have still been guessing.

The field kitchen equipment of the 64th U. S. Infantry passed through town yesterday supposedly enroute to Washington for the Armistice Day proceedings. It consisted of two complete units, each drawn by four sleek mules and carrying the usual complement of enlisted men. The children going by to school displayed a lot of interest in the passing food dispensary, one little tot inquiring whether it wasn't part of a circus. Fritz might be able to tell him about that.

He was a gentleman of perhaps sixty years of age well known on account of his steady habits and close application to business. He stood on the corner of a street for several hours Monday. Monday was a windy day. Our curiosity being aroused we ventured to ask why he lingered. Drawing himself up to his full height, he heaved a sigh and said, "Young man, there were no 'roll tops' in my boyhood days. I was born too soon. The care that a young lady takes to show her dimpled knees exceeds anything I have ever noticed in my varied career. And really don't you think that they are stunning?"

Speaking of the labor situation a man who through his affiliation with union osganizations has worked hard to remedy existing conditions of unemployment said, "The plain truth of the matter is that the whole native population of the United States has suddenly and with one accord balked on accepting employment in any line of work which might be called menial. Farm hands, servant girls, house-keepers and maids are in demand. The young men desire to clerks, mechanics or salesmen. The girls are all typists, stenographers or shop girls. The nation refuses to do its own odd jobs. Men refuse employment on the farm at good wages to seek jobs in industrial concerns for less money. Girls eke out an existence in hall bedrooms, eating illy cooked meals in cheap restaurants, so that they may retain poorly paid clerical positions. The trained house servant is as scarce—well, they are so scarce that they don't figure in the unemployment situation at all. Neither does the practical farmer, if there is such a person outside the ranks of farm

Week of Prayer

The meetings of the Week of Prayer are proving very interesting and the attendance is very gratifying, but there is still room for more.

The meeting of the afternoon is in charge of Mrs. R. Goode and Mrs. Charles Blewett, at which time Mrs. W. Harold Weigler, a returned missionary from China, will speak.

The regular prayer meeting tonight at 8 o'clock in charge of Woman's Missionary Society.

Tomorrow afternoon at 3:30 Young People and Busy Bees will conduct the services and 8 o'clock same day The Golden Links Society will be in charge.

This will close a very successful week of prayer and we feel all who have been able to attend have been well repaid.

How To Revitalize Wornout Exhausted Nerves
Your nerve power depends on plenty of good, rich, red blood of the kind that organic iron—Nuxated Iron—helps make. Nuxated Iron is like the iron in your blood and like the iron in spinach, lentils and apples, while metallic iron is iron just as it comes from the action of strong acids on iron filings. Nuxated Iron does not injure the teeth nor upset the stomach; it is an entirely different thing from ordinary metallic iron. It quickly helps make rich, red blood, revitalize wornout, exhausted nerves and give you new strength and energy. Over 4,000,000 people annually are using it. Beware of substitutes. Always insist upon having genuine organic iron—Nuxated Iron. Look for the letters N.I. on every tablet. Sold by all druggists in tablets only—never in liquid form.

Arlington county, which last November gave Harding a majority is the home of Joseph L. Crupper, state chairman of the republican party in Virginia reversed itself in yesterday's election giving Trinkle an estimated majority of 250. Mr. Crupper's own precinct also went for Trinkle by a vote estimated at 2 to 1.

The so-called anti-machine ticket has been swamped in Virginia, the largest majority since the civil war being received yesterday by the democratic party in Virginia.

The Ninth district which always has been heavily republican is now in doubt and has probably gone democratic.

Alexandria did not last night obtain complete returns till nearing midnght, the third ward being the last ward to be heard from. It was after 11 o'clock when the officials in that ward announced the vote.

HISTORICAL PAGEANT

The Virginia Historical Pageant Association will assist the various county auxiliary committees and affiliated organizations in securing funds to build floats for the daily parades of March of Progress Week by allowing 25 per cent. of the amount received from the sale of memberships by the committees from November 1 until January 1. When memberships are sold the full amount is to be remitted to Pageant headquarters. The 25 per cent. will be credited to the committee or organization making the sale, and a receipt mailed them by the Virginia Historical Pageant Association. If the committee or organization arranges to have one or more floats in any of the daily parades, the amount to their credit from the sale of memberships 25 per cent. will then be paid to them to aid in defraying the cost of the floats.

This liberal offer on the part of the Pageant Association is made to encourage every county in the state to be represented in at least one of the parades.

A membership now costs only one dollar ($1.00), and carries with it a ticket of admission to one performance of the Pageant Tableau, with a seat in the membership section. After January 1 tickets of admission will cost from $2.50 to $5. Only a limited number of memberships will be sold, and when a sufficient number has been sold to cover the preliminary expense of staging the pageant, the sale of memberships will be stopped at once and in any event no memberships will be sold after January 1.

ROYAL ARCANUM

An interesting meeting of Alexandria Council No. 627, Royal Arcanum was held last evening. Among some of its business transacted was the election of James R. Mansfield as Secretary to succeed the late James E Alexander(the latter having held the position as Secretary in this Council for the past 40 years. The Regent of the Council James Bayne, addressed the body on the life and character of its former secretary, of his faithfulness to duty during the many years of his association with the council and the work of the organization. A committee was appointed to prepare suitable resolutions to the memory of its former Secretary.

A teacher in the public schools while instructing a class in physiology and hygiene made the statement that the body was entirely renewed every seven years. To illustrate the point she said, "Now for instance, you Margaret Jones in seven years will no longer be Margaret Jones."

Miss Jones ,only that isn't her name of course, surveyed the teacher with a twinkling eye and quizzical. expsession. Finally she volunteered, "No, I won't be Margaret Jones in seven years from now. Not if I have to get out and run a man down."

Ran into Washington in a twin-six the other night. Bumped over that mile of Belgian block with our heads touchingg the top of the car about every third bump. If the Belgians pave their higghways with that sort of material we readily understand why Frtiz failed to bring up his Big Berthas in time to crush the Allies. Felt like cobble stones only more so. The authorities have been talking about fixing it they tell us. Talk don't cure bumps on ones cranium. It takes iodine. When the iodine plays out taxpayers may get busy and demand action.

A big black car swung into line at the corner of Pitt and Royal and the hustling owner of the six cylindered McFarland which transports passenggers to and from Camp Humphries waved a cheery greeting.

"How is business in these hard times?" asked the Man About Town as he stopped to pass the time o' day.

"The hard times haven't hit me yet. Business is pretty good. At least I find it so. Climb in and have a smoke. I don't go out until four forty-five."

We climbed into the roomy car and discussed local conditions and persons. The owner knows everybody. He pointed out this individual and that one with a terse comment upon their standi ngginthecom ? (('gffl „ETO standingg in the community. Lawyers, doctors, judges, policemen and railroad men passed in review. Some of them stopped lon genough to say "hello," while others nodded or waved a greeting. The Washington car stopped on the corner and a bundle laden matron stepped from the platform.

"Excuse me, that is Mrs. H—— from the camp," the enterprising owner of the big buzz wagon jumped down and hastened to relieve the lady of her burden. She appreciated his courtesy and showed it by the pleased expression on her face. After she was snugly fixed in the rear seat the conversation continued.

"I am running this car as a business proposition. It pays to treat your trouble to do a little thing like that and it is good avdertising. When the ladies who have been in town shopping reach the camp it is very little extra bother to drive them to their homes. I always do it. Some of my competitors don't. I can't kick—business is good with me."

The influx of passengers filled the car and the Man About Town crawled out to make room for a top sergegant in the uniform of the Engineers. Ward Stuart hadn't misrepresented things a bit .Business was good with him. Many a bigger business has been founded on that simple principle ,"courteous treatment."

THE WHITE PLAGUE

"That there are approximately 24,000 persons in Virginia today suffering from active tuberculosis, and that this large number of cases of an infectious disease constitutes a real menace to the Commonwealth, is the conclusion reached by the Tuberculosis Committee appointed by the Legislature of 1920," said J. Sinclair Brown, of Roanoke, chairman, in an interview today.

Mr. Brown stated that an idea of the losses due to tuberculosis might be gleanned from the fact that although 1920 showed the lowest tuberculosis death rate, there were in that year two and one-half times as many deaths from that disease alone as there were from the next seven most dangerous infectious diseases, smallpox, diphtheria, measles, whooping cough, scarlet fever, malaria and typhoid fever combined. An economic paper translated the deaths from tuberculosis during a seven-year period into dollars and cents. At a conservative estimate the total reached to $195,000,000.00

Mr. Brown stated that the Report of the Committee was rapidly reaching completion and would be ready to transmit to the General Assembly when it convenes next January. Every available source of information was used in the preparation of the Report, which is a comprehensive record of findings. The committee sat at each of the sanatoria, interviewed the staff of each, consulted experts and others interested, examined mortality tables, and had prepared for it statistical and economic papers.

Studies of the amount of tuberculosis in the general population were made from the morbidity statistics and from reports of field clinic conducted by the State Board of Health in co-operation with the Virginia Tuberculosis Association .Mr. Brown said that the evidence nad convinced the Committee that there were probably 24,000 tuberculous persons in the State today. Better registration of cases is, in the opinion of the Committee, essential before any effective plan of control can be established. In 1915, for each death there were about 2 cases reported; in 1920 cases of illness from tuberculosis exceeded death records by only nine. In one county in the State, persistent clinic work has dmonstrated the existence of 7 cases for each annual death.

"While Virginia's death rate remains higher than that several of the other States," said Mr. Brown, "nevertheless, we are glad to be able to show that the death rate has been cut 18 per cent in the five years since the First Commission of 1915 handed in its report and recommendations. At that time a sanatorium for negro consumptives was established and appropriations made to permit the State Board of Health to intensify the educational campaign In 1918 a second sanatorium was built for white patients. The increase in the bed capacity at the Santoria and the enlarged campaign of propaganda should certainly share with the general health campaign the honor of saving the 703 lives which the lowered death rate actually represented in 1920."

Besides Mr. Brown, the committee has the following members, Dr. C. U. Gravatt and Julien Gunn, from the Senate, and John Nottingham and Lemuel Smith, from the House. Yeet17ppign e rco(yfo) od oh do o

to succeed Mr. Kaufmann.

The following reports from the finance committee were adopted: Resolution appropriating $1,041.17 for refund of taxes to the three national banks of the city; bill from the corporation attorney, $565.00, for services, ordered to be paid; and appropriation of $42.00 for a 400-watt light at the intersection of Fairfax and Franklin streets.

A resolution to increase the salary of the clerk of gas from $1200 to $1800 was opposed by Councilman Baggett on the ground of economy, he stating that although the superintendent of gas had reported that gas was now being made at a cost of 90 cents per 1000 feet, it is still being sold at $1.80, and he questioned the propriety of increasing expenses until the public received some benefit from decreased cost of production. Councilman McCaffrey sharply criticized Mr. Baggett for objecting to the salary increase. It was stated that the clerk of gas had received a bonus of $300 per annum, granted by the committee on gas, and the resolution granting the increase from $1200 to $1800 was finally passed, 13 to 2. Councilmen McCaffrey and Sullivan voting no, after a clause had been added to the resolution providing that the new salary should "cover all duties assigned to said office."

A resolution to extend the gas mains on West street north from King street to Cameron was passed, and the sum of $150 appropriated for connecting the High School building with the city gas mains. A resolution to increase the compensation of the city engineer to $2700 per annum was passed. A communication was received from W. T. Duncan offering to furnish teams and wagons to the city at $5 per day, and dump carts at 40 cents per hour. The offer was declined, on account of the existence of a contract for the year 1921. On petition from the property owners on the 200 block West street, $500 was appropriated to construct a pipe sewer from Duke at West street northward on West toward Prince street. The sum of $16,000 was appropriated to construct a bituminous macadam roadway on South Washington street from Duke to Franklin.

The following resolutions were received and referred to committees. To place a 400-watt light at the intersection of Duke and West streets at a cost of not to exceed $50; petition from property owners on the 801 block Madison street to extend the city sewer down Alfred to Madison, thence east on Madison to Columbus street; petition for a sewer on the 200 block North Fairfax street; an ordinance fixing the salary of the civil and police justice and appropriation of funds for repairs to courtroom and office, and for furniture, books and stationery, no amount named; petitions from the members of Motor Company No. 5, Relief Truck and Engine Company No. 1, and Columbia Engine Company No. 4, for re-election of the present fire chief, E. J. McDermott; communication from Graham and Ogden in reference to increased premium on the city insurance policy covering employer's liability insurance; petition to install an electric light on Elizabeth street at the intersection with Duke street; bill of the Alexandria County Lighting Company for current furnished the city jail from July 9, 1919 to October 14, 1921, $167.56; an ordnance permitting the building of frame extensions on brick buildings for kitchens, baths, porches, etc.; resolutions requiring the repair of certain sidewalks. The report of the city health officer for the month of October was received.

There will be a called meeting of Russell Mitchell Post No. 609 V. F. W., tonight (Wednesday) at 8 p. m. at our hall on Prince street, Old Truck House, to make final arrangements pertaining to ceremonies at Capitol at 9.40 a. m. October 10thAr.CM at 9.40 a. m. UNION SERVICES

To Be Held At Trinity M. E. Church 7:30 P. M.

The attendance at these services is continually growing in numbers. Last night the Rev. Edgar Carpenter pastor of Grace Episcopal Church, preached to a large congregation. This was a great sermon delivered in a forceful way.

At the close of the sermon a number of young men came forward to the altar and decided to lead a Christian life.

Many in the congregation raised their hands for prayers.

Tonight, the Rev. William Weeks rector of Union Church, Washington, will be the preacher. Don't miss these services, this is the last week of them in this church. Rev. D. H. Martin, D. D., and Rev. Robert Browne will conduct the service. Everybody welcome. Come.

Animal Superstitions

The Arabs have a superstition that the stork has a human heart.

The Japanese believe that foxes have supernatural powers. The crying of weasels and the baying of dogs are regarded as evil omens by the Japanese.

Among the Mongolians it is popularly believed that earthquakes are due to the breathings and skippings of a huge frog.

"The crow made everything. He is allwise. When he flew he made the waters. When he dropped his feathers he made people." Such is the basis of faith held by Eskimos and Indians throughout Alaska.

In rural England there exists a superstitious belief that bees will either fly away or die on the occasion of a death in the family, unless some one knocks at their hives and tells them of it.

The crow figures in many superstitions. It is luck to see a crow sitting on one leg. When crows forsake a flock, it is a sign of famine.

Among the negroes of the South the superstition prevails that it is "good luck" to meet a frog; they believe the one thus favored is about to receive money from some unexpected place.

In Holland and Belgium it is believed that ill luck is sure to follow all through life anyone that accidentally or otherwise kills a stork.

Scotch and English milkmaids believe their cows will "go dry" if they forget to wash their hands when through milking.

In many parts of Europe it is at the present day considered an omen of ill luck for a hare to cross the road in front of a traveler.

A stray black cat in the backyard foretells good luck.

RECRUITS WANTED

For Medical Department at Walter Reed Hospital

Uncle Sam is in need of about 50 young, ambitious, able-bodied men of good moral character to fill the existing vacancies at Walter Reed General Hospital, which is the most up-to-date and the best equipped hospital in the country. Being located right in the city of Washington we have many advantges over other stations from the standpoint of amusements and recreation. We have a chance to see the best of shows, enjoy excellnt musical performances and all sorts of social functions. Big league base ball games, high class foot ball not to speak of local athletics such as base ball, basket ball, boxing, etc., which we have right here in this post. Dances, free picture shows and other amusements are carried on at this hospital for the entertainment of patients and duty personnel. Religious services, both Catholic and Protestant, at K. C. Hall and Y. M. C. A. hut.

Service in the Medical Department has a particularly strong appeal and hundreds of bank clerks, bookkeepers and others, whose former civilian pursuits kept them confined with little air and artificial light, have decided never to return to their old jobs and ill health after spending one enlistment in the Army.

Outside of duty hours no branch of service gives greater opportunity for study and advancement. Classes and practical instruction are held in Pharmacy, Materia Medica, Physiology, Anatomy, Personal Hygiene, Sanitation, Nursing Dietetics, First Aid and Minor Surgery. Walter Reed Hospital also affords excellent opportunity to become proficient in Laboratory and X-Ray work.

The services of those experienced as pharmacists, clerical workers, stenographers, typists, embalmers, dental mechanics, medical, dental and veterinary students, cooks, bakers, barbers, agricultural students, farmers, and those experienced in the use of tools and running of motor vehicles, are particularly desired; but any bright, intelligent man, if he has had a common school education and is of good character, may be enlisted provided he is between the ages of eighteen and thirty-five years, unmarried, able-bodied, free from disease, and able to speak, read and write the English language.

Uncle Sam pays good for the services rendered. Pay ranges from $30.00 per month of a Private to $74.00 of Master Sergeant, with 10 per cent increase for every five years of service. In addition to the above any man may be rated as specialist with extra pay from $3.00 to $25.00 per month. Promotions are made as rapdily as there are vacancies for men who pass exmination for higher grades. Your pay in the Army is your net gain because the Government furnishes you with everything you need, viz:—Nice, clean, sanitary dormitories, plenty of clothing of best quality, excellent and wholesome food, medical and dental attention, hospital care, etc.

If you feel that you want to serve your Uncle Sam and at the same time develop yourself both mentally and physically, we will be only too glad to explain to you in detail Army life in the Medical Department, also answer all questions as to pay, promotion, government insurance, allotments of pay to your folks, clothing allowance, furloughs, passes, and many other things which may be of interest to you.

Recruitng party from Walter Reed General Hospital will be in Alexandria on November 10th, 11th and 12th at the corner of King and Washington streets, so be sure and look them up.

Apply for enlistment to the Recruiting Officer, Commanding Officer, Detachment Medical Department or the First Sergeant Detachment Medical Department at Walter Reed General Hospital, either one of whom can be found every day between the hours of 7:00 a. m., and 5:00 p. m.

SOME PEOPLE PREFER TABLETS.

Pepto-Mangan Is Sold In Liquid and Tablets—the Same Medicinally.

The famous blood builder, Gude's Pepto-Mangan, can be had in tablet form, as well as in liquid. Some people prefer Pepto-Mangan tablets to the liquid. They are put up in a convenient package. There are people who take the liquid Pepto-Mangan at home morning and night, and take the tablets at noon time.

Medicinally the liquid and the tablet form of Gude's Pepto-Mangan are the same. Any druggist can supply this well-known blood builder. Physicians have prescribed Gude's Pepto-Mangan for years. It restores the blood to its normal healthy state by increasing the number of red cells. Men, women and children who are run down, weak, pale and sickly, regain normal health by helping the blood to get back its strength. Look for the name "Gude's Pepto-Mangan" on the package.—Adv.

LIVED YEARS ON BREAD AND MILK

For More Than Decade Malady Of Alabama Woman Was Contiually Sapping Her Strength.

Mrs. H. P. Barrett, of Republic, suburb of Birmingham, Ala., gives the facts of her remarkable experience with Tanlac as follows:

"During the past fourteen years I have spent more than one thousand dollars trying to get rid of a complaint that was gradually sapping my strength, but until I got hold of Tanlac nothing helped me. For the past four years I have lived almost entirely on milk and bread, and finally even that went against me.

"Before I had finished the first bottle of Tanlac I got so I could eat anything, and I certainly bless the day I first got this medicine for I believe it has added years to my life. The people in my neighborhood were so surprised at the change in me that fourteen of them by actual count are now taking Tanlac."

Tanlac is sold in Alexandria by Edgar Warfield, Jr., and by leading druggists everywhere.

THE EFFICIENT WOMAN.

We hear a great deal nowadays about the efficiency of women. In the novels of fifty years, ago, who ever heard a woman praised for her executive ability, force, and energy, in the sense that it is used today? The frail, delicate, helpless ideal of womanhood has passed away. How is it possible to measure up to the ideals of modern womanhood? In the first place, we must keep our bodies in the best possible condition.

Thousands of women haye succeeded through daily baths, exercise in the fresh air, and Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound at the first sign of female weakness.

Business and Professional Women's Club

Judge Kathryn Sellers spoke last night before 82 members of the Business and Professional Women's Club, in the chamber of commerce auditorium, at the regular November meeting of this organization. Judge Sellers did not deliver a lecture but gave an interesting, rather intimate, talk of different points of her work in the juvenile court of the District of Columbia and held the attention of the women present throughout. She impressed upon her hearers the importance of a juvenile clinic in the eradication of criminal tendencies in the young, thereby leading to the suppression of crime.

The meeting was presided over by Miss Lucy Graves, the president, and began with the regular supper served by the entertainment committee, composed of Mrs. Louis N. Duffey, Mrs. Richard Haydon, Miss Alice Whitton, Miss Edith Whitton, Miss Mary Whitton and Miss Blanche Stansbury. Mrs. Ava Veach gave several most enjoyable readings during the progress of the supper. An invitation from the Y. M. C. A. was received and accepted to attend the meeting to be held under its auspices tomorrow evening. The Red Cross asked the co-operation of the club in the membership drive now in progress, urging each member to join the Red Cross and help to keep the two efficient nurses, Miss Bristow and Miss Mowat, in the city, as the loss of their services would seriously affect the health conditions and their salaries are contingent upon Red Cross subscriptions.

Mrs. Esther Paul Jones presented the club with a gavel made from wood of a door facing in the "House of Conspiracy," in which John Wilkes Boothe formulated his plans for the assassination of Lincoln. The meeting adjourned to meet the second Tuesday in December when plans will be submitted by the executive committee for a Christmas entertainment.

ARGUMENTS FOR RICHMOND LOCATION ANSWERED BY ADVOCATES OF UNIVERSITY

(First Series)

Charlottesville, Va., Nov. 9.—Advocates of the University location for the single state-supported medical school have singled out the principal arguments for the Richmond location and have attempted to briefly refute them. Twelve of the leading assertions of the Richmond supporters have been answered in this way and this is the first of a series of articles dealing with these arguments.

Assertion 1.

The prime reason assigned for introducing this question to the legislature was the assumption that the state OWNED TWO MEDICAL SCHOOLS, and should own but one.

Answer.

The state does not own and never has owned but one medical school (namely, the medical school at the University of Virginia). This is definitely asserted in the Majority Report of the Medical Commission. Therefore, the entire controversy is based upon a false premise.

Assertion 2.

The Richmond advocates started with assertions that there is not and cannot be found clinical material for teaching at the University.

Answer.

It has been established that there is adequate clinical material at the University, and that it is handled in a exemplary manner; and that the clinics can be enlarged to the extent to which beds will be provided.

Assertion 3.

The Richmond advocates alleged that the clinics at the University are "Artificial" (meaning ?), and are inordinately costly compared with the Richmond clinics.

Answer.

The Richmond publicists never yet have dared give the figures as to the number of the patients in Richmond hospitals for the last session of the previous session, which were assigned to students and personally examined by students. These authorities in the face of specific requests have failed to furnish even the usual hospital reports; they have never dared give the hospital per capita costs for clinical material. All of these figures are published with regard to the University and are known to be reasonable. Further, it is known that the cost of the University hospital is justified (without reference to teaching), by the economic and humanitarian work accomplished in a region with no other large general hospital.

Assertion 4.

The Richmond advocates have maintained that the University of Virginia medical school is unable to draw a large class of students to the school at Charlottesville, while they swarm in crowds to the Richmond school.

Answer.

The entering class of medical students at Charlottesville, is much larger than the entering class of regular students at the Richmond school. Large numbers of students were, until recently, attracted to Richmond by the low requirements prevailing in the school. Since the Richmond school has been compelled by the nations medical school agencies to live up to the national standards for "Class A Medical Schools" the number of new regularly matriculated students entering the Richmond school has fallen enormously, and this in spite of the union of the two Richmond school and of the union of the combined Richmond school with a North Carolina school.

Again, the authorities of the medical school at the University had the courage and foresight to institute and rigidly enforce high entrance requirements, and corresponding standards within the medical school progressively extending these changes over a period of years beginning some fifteen years ago, and lasting about eight or ten years. The expected reduction in the number of entering students was faced and lived through. At present and for several years the University is and has been reaping the reward of this policy, in having a high grade of students in the school and in having a steady, progressive and healthy increase in the numbers of new students entering.

In spite of the oft-repeated cry that the state needs more doctors, the state is at present not giving to the medical school at the University, enough money to house and care for the enlarging classes of high grade students applying for admission to the medical school.

Assertion 5.

The Richmond advocates alleged that the buildings and equipment in Richmond—if turned over to the University authorities—would suffice for an A-1 Medical School.

Answer.

Inspection by experts reveals that the state will have to expend a large sum in building if the state conducts a high grade school for 400 medical students in Richmond. It will be no economy to build in Richmond.

Assertion 6.

Richmond advocates allege that more doctors graduated from Richmond will, in the future, go out into rural Virginia to practice than will be the case if the same number is graduated from the University.

Answer.

This allegation is denied in the majority report itself; it is refuted by the recently collected figures showing the locations of the recent Richmond graduates; it is an established fact that the selection of he PLACE at which a student OBTAINS his MEDICAL EDUCATION is largely a distinct matter from the selection of the place in which the young graduate SETTLES FOR PRACTICE; the graduate will be influenced in a choice of a location chiefly by the apparent opportunities to make a good living and to supply the advantages of good roads, schools, and churches to his family and himself.

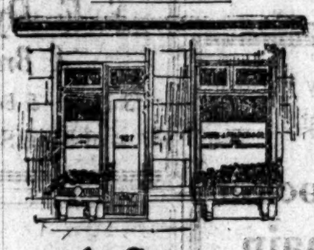
J. B. Mills, marine engineer, 212 S. Lee St., says: "I have taken Doan's Kidney Pills off and on many years for backache and other kidney trouble. I have always had fine results. A few of Doan's regulate my kidneys and strengthen my back if it feels at all weak and lame. I get Doan's at Warfield Drug Store."

Mr. Mills gave the above endorsement on April 13, 1915 and on March 18, 1919, he added: "Doan's Kidney Pills are certainly fine. If my kidneys get out of order it only takes a few of Doan's to fix me up."

Price 60c, at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mr. Mills had. Foster-Milburn Co., Mfrs., Buffalo, N. Y.



A Strong Bond Market

The rapidity with which certain new issues of bonds have been oversubscribed, and the fact that interest rates have shown, during the past few months, a decided tendency toward lower levels, can be taken as evidence of the trend of the bond market.

While bond prices are still low we recommend the purchase of those kinds of bonds that are recognized as the safest, as we believe that the investment demand will center on such issues for months to come.

We have selected for your consideration a list of secured mortgage bonds, essentially Southern, yielding 7 to 7 per cent.

Write for circular if you are interested in what the South can offer.

IN GROWN TOE NAIL TURNS OUT ITSELF

A few drops of "Outgro" upon the skin surrounding the ingrowing nail reduces inflammation and pain and so toughens the tender, sensitive skin underneath the toe nail, that it can not penetrate the flesh, and the nail turns naturally outward almost over night.

"Outgro" is a harmless, antiseptic manufactured for chiropodists. However, anyone can buy from the drug store a tiny bottle containing directions.
